USBORNE
Be Curious.

Dear Bookseller,

This year is a particularly exciting one for me, as I take on the role of Publishing Director after 27 years at Usborne.

While my job title may have changed, one thing certainly hasn't: I still think making books for children is the best job in the world. It's hard to imagine a more worthwhile thing to do with your working life, and it's a real privilege to work alongside our talented creative teams as we dream up and create new books for young readers.

Every season brings fresh opportunities to put smiles on children's faces. In this catalogue you'll find new baby books to become part of those precious moments shared between parents and little ones, engaging information books that might spark a lifelong fascination with a subject, and activity books designed to inspire creativity and imagination.

Among this season's highlights are our delightful new interactive board book Knock on the Door (p26 and featuring on the cover of this catalogue); brand-new activity series including Cosy Town Sticker Books (p160), Cute Things to Draw and Colour (p116) and Foil Art (p115); fascinating non-fiction such as The Secret World of Plants (p174); the wonderfully spooky 13 Nights to Halloween! (p241), where children open a door each day to discover a mini story or activity book; and Evie Spark (p91), an exciting new illustrated fiction series for young readers developed in-house by our brilliant Fiction Publisher Rebecca Hill.

We want every book we publish to have the potential to become a child's favourite book. We pour an enormous amount of passion, care and attention into every page, and hope each book feels like a little world for a child to explore, enjoy and be inspired by.

I hope this catalogue helps you to match lots more children with their new favourite book.

Best Wishes

Sam Taplin
